

THE TABLE

Of the PRICES to be payed to the
Bell-men and Grave-makers;

Appointed by the COUNCIL of EDINBURGH,

February 12. 1658. As follows:

	l.	s.	d.
T Here is to be payed to the Bell-men, for going thorow the Town with the Bell, for the Corps of each Man or Woman, who shall have the use of the Largest Velvet Mort-cloth. —————	04	00	0
And to the Grave-makers	00	12	0
Item , For the Corps of each young Man, or Maid, or Servant, who shall have the use of the Midlen Velvet Mort-cloth; to the Bell-men —————	02	00	0
And to the Grave-makers —————	00	09	0
Item , For Children, who have the use of the Velvet Mort- cloth; the Bell-men for carrying the Corps —————	01	10	0
And to the Grave-makers —————	00	06	0
Item , For going thorow with the Bell, for the Corps of each Man, or Woman, who shall make use of the Largest Cloth Mort-cloth; to the Bell-men —————	03	00	0
And to the Grave-makers	00	12	0
Item , For each young Man, Woman, or Servant, who shall have the use of the Midlen Cloth Mort-cloth; to the Bell- men —————	01	10	0
And to the Grave-makers —————	00	09	0
And for Bairns who shall have the use of the Little Cloth Mort- cloth; to the Bell-men for carrying the Corps —————	00	18	0
And to the Grave-makers —————	00	06	0
And this to be payed in satisfaction of all Fies and Dues that can be exacted for the Service, either of Bell-men, or Grave-makers, and that they demand no more, nor receive any more ( though offered ) under the pain of Depriva- tion. It is to be remembred, that the common Poor, and such as receive the Kirk-alms pay nothing, neither to the Bell-men, nor Grave-makers.
Item , that the Bell-men pay for Ringing of the Town-Bells as formerly.

